SCHEDULING ORDER

Consistent with discussion and the Court's directives on the record during a pre-trial conference on May 30, 2024, it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. Each party's initial disclosures pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) shall be served on or before June 30, 2024.
2. Fact discovery shall be complete on or before August 30, 2024.
3. The parties represented on the record that they do not anticipate requiring expert discovery.
4. The parties are encouraged to discuss whether mediation would be appropriate before they incur further expense and undergo further effort formally litigating their dispute.
5. If any deadline imposed by this order falls on a weekend or court holiday, the applicable deadline shall be the first following regular business day.
6. Any request for an extension of the deadlines set by this order shall be for cause shown, and shall explain what efforts were made to comply with the current deadlines, and why, despite the requesting party's best efforts, additional time is required. Any party that experiences delay in completing discovery due to another party's failure to timely comply with discovery obligations shall seek relief promptly, without waiting for the end of the discovery period.

7. The Court will conduct a status conference on September 12, 2024, at 10:00 a.m., by Zoom for Government. If any party wishes to move for summary judgment at the close of discovery, they are to file a pre-motion conference request letter at least seven days before the September 12 conference, and any responses shall be filed no later than three business days before the conference.
